

From our Curate, Revd Graham Naylor

Good folk,

It is my daily habit to pray Morning and Evening Prayer from Common Worship. Following discussions with Rev Stephen and with his agreement, I am offering the opportunity during lockdown for folk to join me via Zoom for Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer or both, from Monday 9th November onwards. There is no commitment to join every session - just as and when folk can or wish. As most folk will not have the Common Worship book, I will share the online version of the text to enable folk to follow and join in.

Provisional times are 09:30am for MP and 4:30pm for EP, but I am happy to vary this if a number of folk would find different times better.

If you think you might like to join me, please email me at grahamdnaylor@gmail.com with a request for the Zoom links. I will generate one link for MP and one for EP, which will remain the same rather than changing each day to keep things straightforward.

Blessings

Graham
